

Tribe Cagers Nab Third in Santa Ana Tournament

Defending state basketball champion Fullerton dropped a 79-71 duke to El Camino College Thursday in a battle for third place in the Santa Ana Tournament.

Ron Dinnel popped in 20 points as ECC raced to a 45 to 32 halftime lead and went on from there to post its fifth win against seven defeats.

San Mateo shackled Hancock's well-balanced scoring machine to earn a 52-39 victory and first place in the holiday festival. Hancock had beaten EC 70-49 the night before to romp into the finals.

FULLERTON, 69-53 victor over Bakersfield in the semifinals, just did not have the guns, as the Tribe had three men in double figures, all hitting for 15 points or better.

Following Dinnel in the scoring column were Paul Ingleman with 17 and Keith Erickson, potting 15.

MORRIS canned 20 points for Fullerton to tie Dinnel for high point honors.

In working its way to the third place slot, Camino dumped Long Beach City College 78 to 68 in an overtime tilt and fell before Hancock. It was the second time this year the Warriors have received a shellacking from the boys up north.

HANCOCK NABBED a 32-21 halftime lead and was never headed as the Bulldogs defense held EC in check throughout the one-sided affair. Dan Karavas with 16 points was the only Warrior to hit more than eight points. In contrast, Hancock had four men who hit in double figures.

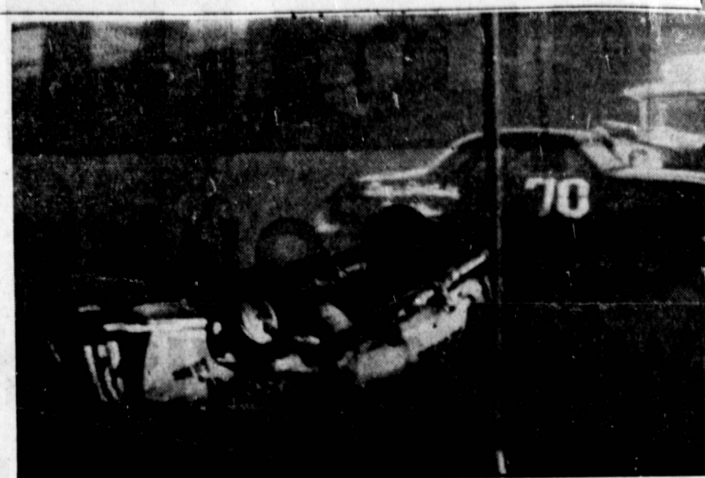

Now comes the big one for El Camino, the Sam Barry Tournament at Glendale College beginning Tuesday and carrying through Thursday. ECC will meet 15 of the top junior college quintets in the Southland in the battle for the festival championship.

IT WILL be rough hoeing for the Indians right from the start as they battle always mighty Los Angeles City College in the opening round of action.

Los Angeles already holds an 80-67 decision over the Braves in an earlier contest this year. In their win, the Cubs demonstrated their tremendous scoring ability, bouncing back from a 31 to 23 halftime deficit to bucket 57 second half points and walk away with the win.

Elgin 'Twist' Baylor Meets Wilt the Stilt

Elgin Baylor, who made the "twist" famous long before rock n' rollers had ever heard of Chubby Checker, and Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, who has made high scoring in the NBA as common as the cold, renew basketball's remarkable point duel.

They start the New Year, Monday night, Jan. 1, in another chapter of the "dunk vs. twist shot" at the Sports Arena.

The "dunk," of course, is 7 ft. 2 in. Wilt's big weapon. He literally stuffs the ball into the net. Baylor, on the other hand, employs the "twist," an adroit flick of the wrist which is nearly indefensible. He puts an uncommon "English" on the ball with the same "net" result.

In their most famous struggle of the season Wilt won the
